

Fraud Disclosure

Please be aware of fraud attempts by unknown parties that target people who are seeking humanitarian aid from neighboring countries by opening an account in one of the banks and requesting to transfer funds through a digital wallet without receiving any amounts. This process is considered fraud on the individuals and leads them to financial loss.

Be careful and do not deal with these parties to protect yourself and your money.