

Financial Fraud:

Due to many fake pages on social media that claim presenting loans, financial facilities or any other service through Central Bank or one of the banks, and to ensure of the safety of your banking transactions.

We would like to draw your attention to fraud attempts, which carried out by unlicensed parties. Avoid dealing with or providing them with personal data or any official documents to protect you and your funds.

Please make sure you only get our services through visiting your nearest branch or contacting us.